

1. User access the website via internet

2 ALB receives the requests and forward to healthy EC2 instance

3 EC2 instances serve the website content

4 If one instance fails, traffic is automatically routed to the healthy one